TOGO REPORTS ON BATTLE DETAILS AND ENEMY'S LOSS

WASHINGTON, May 31, 1905.
To the JAPANESE CONSUL-GENERAL, Honolulu:
It is officially announced that in the last naval battle our fleet was damaged very slightly and none of our battleships, cruisers, destroyers nor any other ship except three torpedo boats lost. Under the Imperial Command Admiral Togo has been authorized to permit Nebogatoff to submit to the Czar reports on last battle and the list of Russians killed and wounded and prisoners, and also to release on parole surrendered officers of the Nicholas 1st, Orel, Apraxin, Sanyaven.

Russian Admiral Rojstvensky has been taken to the Sasebo Naval Hospital. No other admiral has been captured from the Bledovy, last report in this respect being due to clerical error.
TAKAHIRA.
WASHINGTON, May 30, 1905.
To the JAPANESE CONSUL-GENERAL, Honolulu:
The fifth report from Admiral Togo is as follows:
"The main force of our combined fleet, upon accepting the surrender of remaining Russian main force near Liancourt Rocks on the afternoon of the 28th, as was already reported, stopped pursuit, and while engaged in disposition of the surrendered ships found in the southwestern direction Admiral Ushakoff on a coast defense ship; thereupon the Iwate and the Yakumo were immediately despatched to pursue, and invited her to surrender. But having been refused, they sunk her at 6 p. m. Her crew of over 300 men were rescued.

Cruiser Domitri Donaskol was also found in the northwestern direction at 5 p. m. and was immediately overtaken and fired upon vigorously by our fourth division and second destroyer flotilla. She was attacked on that night by the second destroyer flotilla and found on next morning aground on the southeastern shore of Ureung Island, off the Korean coast. Our destroyer Sazanami captured toward the evening of the 27th in the south of Ureung Island the Russian destroyer Bledovy, wherein were found Admiral Rojstvensky and another Admiral, both severely wounded, together with eighty Russians, including staff officers from the flagship Prince Suvaroff, which was sunk on the 27th at 5:29 p. m. They were all taken prisoners. Our cruiser Chitosea, while cruising northward on the morning of the 28th, found and sunk another Russian destroyer. Our cruiser Nittaka and destroyer Murakumo attacked also at noon on the 28th a Russian destroyer, which finally went aground.

According to various reports hitherto received and the statements of prisoners, the result of the battle from the 27th to the 29th is as follows: Prince Suvaroff, Alexander 3rd, Borodino, Domitri Donaskol, Admiral Nachmoff, Monarch Szentshug, Admiral Ushakoff, one converted cruiser and two destroyers were sunk. Nicholas 1st, Orel, Admiral Apraxin, Admiral Benkevin and destroyer Bledovy were captured. According to the prisoners' statements, the Orel was sunk at about 3 p. m. and Navarin was also sunk. The Almaz on May 27th was observed disabled and was in sinking condition, but her final fate is yet unknown. Full particulars regarding the injury to our ships are not in hand yet, but so far as I could ascertain none is seriously injured, all being still engaged in operations. The whole casualties are not yet ascertained. The casualties of the first division are a little over four hundred. Prince Yoshimoto is in excellent health. Admiral Mitsu was slightly wounded on May 27th.

The sixth report, received on the afternoon of the 30th:
The loss of the Orel and the Navarin are confirmed. The Sissoevliki is also definitely reported to have sunk on the morning of the 28th of May.

According to an official statement of Russian losses so far ascertained the following six battleships were sunk:
Prince Suvaroff, Emperor Alexander 3rd, Borodino, Oslabla, Sissoevliki and Navarin.
The following five cruisers were sunk:
Admiral Nachmoff, Domitri Donaskol, Vladimir, Monomach, Svetlana and Zemtshug.
Coast defense ship Admiral Ushakoff was sunk. Two special service ships, Kamchatka and three destroyers were also sunk. Two battleships, Orel and Emperor Nicholas 1st; two coast defense ships, General Admiral Apraxin and Admiral Benyavin and one destroyer, Bledovy, were captured; and thus the Russians lost altogether twenty-two ships, whose aggregate tonnage amounting to 153,411 tons, beside the cruiser Almaz, which is suspected to have sunk.

A.M. Brown Defines His Position

Honolulu, T. H., May 31st, 1905.
Lorrin Andrews, Esq., Chairman Republican Committee, County of Oahu.

Dear Sir: As there has been considerable talk concerning my political position and attitude in the forthcoming county campaign, I take this means of expressing myself so that there may be no misunderstanding in the matter:
1st. I am, have been and always will be a Republican, and I stand for and support the principles and doctrines taught and maintained by the Republican party.
2nd. As a Republican candidate for office, I deem it my duty to support and uphold the Republican party and the candidates for office on the ticket.
3rd. It is my belief that the administration should not be made an issue in the present campaign; and although I may have differed and do differ with the chief executive of this Territory, in doing so, I only exercise my individual and inalienable privilege as a citizen of this Territory, and which has nothing to do with the duties that I owe to the Republican party and to a Republican Administration.

4th. My main idea is, to see to it that competent, honest and conscientious men are elected to office, and I believe that those men are to be found upon the ticket which I have the honor to head.

I trust that I have made my position understood.

Yours very truly,
A. M. BROWN.

BUSINESS, SAYS H. P. Baldwin, Demands COUNTY LAW

"Yes; I am well satisfied with the Republican outlook for the County election on Maui," said Hon. H. P. Baldwin this morning to a Bulletin representative.
"We have nominated a good County ticket, and I feel confident that it will be enthusiastically supported by our party."
"While I know that the present status of the County Act is a question purely of law to be decided by the Supreme Court, yet I can not help hoping that the Act will be sustained."
"It is a simple one and imposes a comparatively inexpensive form of local government."
"IF WE GET IT NOW, THE PRESENT ACUTE POLITICAL UNREST, WHICH DISTURBS OUR BUSINESS INTERESTS, WILL BE QUIETED."
"What can we expect but turmoil and confusion, perhaps in the next legislative session, certainly in the next campaign, if we keep disappointing the expectations of the people, who want local government? AND THAT UNSETTLES BUSINESS."

MUST HAVE COUNTY ACT, SAYS DICKEY, TO FULFILL PLEDGE

Senator Dickey was this afternoon asked the question if he would be for working on a new County Act in case the failure of the County Act to pass the Supreme Court should cause an extra session of the Legislature.
"I would," answered the Senator.
"I do not consider my pledge to the Republican party fulfilled before we have a County Act."
